

3 some and any: affirmative, negative and questions

some and any affirmative

Se usa some en frases afirmativas.
Significa 'unos/as' o 'algo de'.
There are some apples. Hay unas manzanas.

some and any questions

Se usa any en preguntas.
Significa 'algunos/as' o 'algo de'.
Are there any apples? ¿Hay manzanas / alguna manzana?

some and any negative

Se usa any en frases negativas.
Significa 'ningún/a' o 'nada de'.
There isn't any cheese. No hay (nada de) queso.

3 Completa las preguntas y las frases con some o any.

1 Ordena las palabras para formar frases.

some / cheese. / There's
There's some cheese.

- 1 any / There / isn't / milk.

- 2 any / biscuits. / aren't / There

- 3 are / There / some / carrots.

- 4 some / There's / juice.

- 5 There / any / eggs. / aren't

2 Pon las frases afirmativas en negativa.

There's some milk.
There isn't any milk.

- 1 There's some juice.
There _____ juice.
- 2 There are some people.
There _____ people.
- 3 There are some apples.
There _____ apples.
- 4 There's some cheese.
There _____ cheese.
- 5 There are some CDs.
There _____ CDs.

Is there any bread?
No, there isn't any bread.

- 1 Are there _____ carrots?
Yes, there are _____ carrots.
- 2 Is there _____ juice?
No, there isn't _____ juice.
- 3 Are there _____ eggs?
No, there aren't _____ eggs.
- 4 Are there _____ people?
Yes, there are _____ people.
- 5 Is there _____ cheese?
No, there isn't _____ any cheese.
- 6 Is there _____ milk?
Yes, there is _____ milk.

Vocabulario clave

apple(s) manzana(s) biscuit(s) galleta(s) bread pan carrot(s) zanahoria(s) cheese queso egg(s) huevo(s) juice zumo milk leche people personas there's/there are hay