Lake District

Lake District

The Lake District, also commonly known as The Lakes or Lakeland, is a mountainous region in North West England. This popular holiday destination is famous, not only for its lakes, forests and mountains, but also for its associations with the early 19th century poetry and writings of William Wordsworth and the other Lake Poets.

Lake District Summer Music Festival

* The Lake District Summer Music Festival will run in 2014, its 30th year, despite reports referring to a £150,000 shortfall in its funding.

The festival, founded in 1985 by artistic director Renna Kellaway, will 'cut its coat according to its cloth' and is acting to dispel any 'erroneous impression' that a recent BBC Cumbria story might have given, either that it could not meet its current financial obligations or that the festival might be in any danger of not happening.
